

How can you learn from the persecuted church?

Stuck at home?

Looking for a wider perspective on the global church?

In this session from Open Doors, you can connect with your persecuted church family across the world. You'll hear testimonies of courageous faith, and learn more about the dangers faced by the persecuted church and what they can teach us. And good news: God is active, and the gospel is on the move!

WHEN Wednesday 10 March, 7-8pm

HOW Click here to join on Microsoft Teams

WHO Ron Boyd-Macmillan, Open Doors

YOU! This is open to anybody from the Church of Wales

Open Doors works in more than 60 countries, strengthening and supporting the persecuted church with food and medicine, spiritual care, training and legal advice.

Find out more at opendoorsuk.org

Ron Boyd-Macmillan is an expert on religious persecution, and has written and spoken extensively on the topic.

Ron has worked for Open Doors for many years in several roles, including Director of Research.

Please contact jims@opendoorsuk.org with any questions – we'd love to hear from you

OpenDoors

opendoorsuk.org